EXTRACT from the regulations: (regulations available from our services or on www.prixbayeux.org)

The Bayeux-Calvados Award for war correspondents rewards a report on a conflict situation, or its consequences for civilian populations, or on a news item concerning the defence of individual freedoms and democracy. The report must have been produced between 1st June 2016 and the 31st May 2017.

In the event that the report has not been published by the date on which applications cease to be accepted (6 June 2017), a proof of publication must be supplied to the Organiser before 1 August 2017. Failing this, the application will not be accepted.

Personal data made known to the Organiser are processed within the framework of the principles implemented by the latter for the processing of personal data in accordance with the French law on personal data protection of 6 January 1978, as modified. In accordance with this law, candidates/journalists have the right to access, rectify and delete information concerning them at any time. These rights may be exercised with the Organiser. The Organiser may be led to communicate the surnames, first names and addresses, or other information forwarded by the candidates/journalists to other companies or to its partners. Candidates/journalists who do not wish this information to be communicated to third parties should specify this in writing when submitting their entry application. □

The following should be sent to the Mairie de Bayeux (Bayeux Town Hall):

The entry form duly signed

A copy of the original source (magazine, daily newspaper or internet page) in which the article was published, or the digital file of the report in pdf format.
