EXTRACT from the regulations: (regulations available from our services or on www.prixbayeux.org)
The Bayeux-Calvados Award for war correspondents rewards a report on a conflict situation, or its consequences for civilian populations, or on a news item concerning the defence of individual freedoms and democracy.
The report must have been produced between 1st June 2015 and the 31st May 2017.

The aim is to reward the work of a young reporter. The Young Reporter Award involves a different category each year. In 2017: the category will be Written Press. Participation is limited to journalists who are no older than age 28. The accompanying prize money amounts to €3,000.

Personal data made known to the Organiser are processed within the framework of the principles implemented by the latter for the processing of personal data in accordance with the French law on personal data protection of 6 January 1978, as modified. In accordance with this law, candidates/journalists have the right to access, rectify and delete information concerning them at any time. These rights may be exercised with the Organiser. The Organiser may be led to communicate the surnames, first names and addresses, or other information forwarded by the candidates/journalists to other companies or to its partners. Candidates/journalists who do not wish this information to be communicated to third parties should specify this in writing when submitting their entry application. □
