EXTRACT from the regulations: (regulations available from our services or on www.prixbayeux.org)

The Bayeux Award for war correspondents rewards a report on a conflict situation, or its consequences for civilian populations, or on a news item concerning the defence of individual freedoms and democracy. The report must have been produced between 1 June 2017 and the 31 May 2018.

The length of the Report must be between 6 minutes 30 seconds and 30 minutes. The Report must be identical to the broadcast piece. For the grand format television category, the same team may only submit a single Report. The prize-winning journalist who has been designated as representative by his team undertakes to share the prize money with the members of his or her team who have made the report.

Personal data made known to the Organiser are processed within the framework of the principles implemented by the latter for the processing of personal data in accordance with the French law on personal data protection of 6 January 1978, as modified. In accordance with this law, candidates/journalists have the right to access, rectify and delete information concerning them at any time. These rights may be exercised with the Organiser. The Organiser may be led to communicate the surnames, first names and addresses, or other information forwarded by the candidates/journalists to other companies or to its partners. Candidates/journalists who do not wish this information to be communicated to third parties should specify this in writing when submitting their entry application.
