The Bayeux Award for war correspondents rewards a report on a conflict situation, or its consequences for civilian populations, or on a news item concerning the defence of individual freedoms and democracy. The report must have been produced between 1st June 2022 and the 31st May 2023. The application comprises a single report made up of 8 to 15 photos in the form of digital files regardless of whether this report has been published.

Personal data made known to the Organiser are processed within the framework of the principles implemented by the latter for the processing of personal data in accordance with the French law on personal data protection of 6 January 1978, as modified. In accordance with this law, candidates/journalists have the right to access, rectify and delete information concerning them at any time. These rights may be exercised with the Organiser. The Organiser may be led to communicate the surnames, first names and addresses, or other information forwarded by the candidates/journalists to other companies or to its partners. Candidates/journalists who do not wish this information to be communicated to third parties should specify this in writing when submitting their entry application.

The following documents should be sent to info@prixbayeux.org

- This entry form duly signed
- A link to download the photos
- The captions of the photos in French in a Word document
- An outline of the context of how the report was produced (conditions before during and after the report, challenges, etc.) – 5 to 15 lines to be written by the photographer
- A curriculum vitae of the photographer
